

FemtoBlanc

First and Last in Ultrafast.

Uri Abrams - President & CEO

URI ABRAMS, is the President and CEO of FemtoBlanc. He has served the photonics industry for over 20 years in many leadership and senior management roles. He also recently spearheaded the development of many Laser Systems that won the SPIE Prism Award along with many other industry recognitions

Prior to joining the photonics family, Mr. Abrams held many leadership and Executive Management positions in high volume industrial sensor manufacturing spaces, including general management, strategic planning, financial management, risk management and IP portfolio management.

Mr. Abrams earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Engineering from Drexel University along with his Master of Science in Engineering and MBA in Financial Management from Drexel University.